To Whom It May Concern:

I have known Shannon Sheehan since 1987, when she worked in my firm in the capacity of office manager. Such a position is critical in the life of our firm as it involves client contact, contracts, financial matters and other sensitive issues. Ms. Sheehan worked exceptionally well in this role. She is dedicated to professional performance and is careful and thorough. Honesty and competence are crucial in my practice, as I depend on references and repeat clients. Ms. Sheehan's values are consistent with mine in this regard. I am sure she continues to work in the honest, open and professional manner that characterized her work with me.

Sincerely,

Frederick Fisher
