To Whom It May Concern,

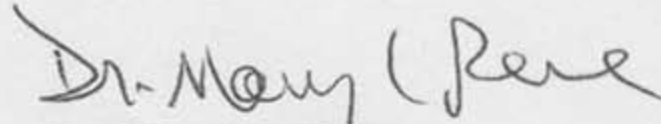

Shannon Sheehan of Citizen Properties has been our contractor for some ten years. During that time, she has completely renovated our house. Shannon has always been our first choice for construction because of the deep and abiding care she gives to every project.

Her budgets are always reasonable and accurate; the work is done in a timely fashion; the quality of workmen she uses are top notch; and her company always sees the job to the end with an unwavering commitment to quality.

We have no hesitation in referring her to our friends and acquaintances. Her work is impeccable and she is an asset as a partner in completing any project that we have embarked on.
